

BIG HARVESTER PLANT TROUBLED

Concern at Peoria Places Its Works in the Hands of a Receiver.

THE WORK GOES ON

Committee Intends To Continue the Trade of Company To Pay All Debts.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 23.—The Acme harvester company, the largest single industry in Peoria and a concern which employs over 1,000 men, has shut down and has been obliged to place its affairs in the hands of a committee representing the creditors, who will arrange for an extension of time with all creditors. One of these is the First National Bank of Chicago, but it is stated by those who know that this bank is absolutely secured. Conservative estimates place the assets at $2,000,000, while the liabilities are considerably less.

Creditors Confer. This action is said to have been taken at a meeting of the creditors held in Chicago, though nothing was given out for publication.

D. R. Forgan, vice president of the First National Bank of Chicago, is one of the committee, the others being A. G. Becker of Becker & Co., G. H. Burr of Steer & Burr, Boston, and Martin Kingman and Ferdinand Luty, Peoria.

It is the intention of the committee to continue the business of the company until every creditor is paid in full. Already about 75 per cent of the creditors have agreed to the extension. Although the plant is idle at present, 700 employees having been laid off, it is stated that this is the usual lay-off for this season of the year, and that the plant will soon start again.

World-Wide Trade.

Among the assets are accounts, most of which are started to be good, owed not only in the United States, but in South Africa and Europe, the business having extended all over the world. It is said that the stock is held by four men, and that W. H. Binman of Peoria is the largest holder.

Reasons assigned for the embarrassment are a bad season, bad collections, pushing of liabilities and tight money. Three suits in assumpsit, aggregating $28,000, have been filed in the Circuit court at Peoria against the company. Catlin & Co. of New York sue for $20,000 on protested notes.

There is an intimation that the harvester trust has waged an unrelenting warfare upon the Acme, and that this partially explains its crippled condition.

CANADA'S CONSENT WAS NOT ASKED

Correspondence Shows That England Ignored the Dominion Throughout.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 23.—The Alaska boundary correspondence was laid before the house today. It consists of messages between the colonial office, Washington, and Ottawa. The correspondence shows that Canada agreed to submit the question to jurists of repute, but protested strongly when Messrs. Root, Lodge, and Turner were appointed by the United States. It shows that, apparently without waiting for Canada's consent, Sir Michael Horner, for England, and Mr. Hay for the United States, signed the treaty. There was nothing for Canada to do then but protest and agree. During a discussion of the decision in the senate, Senator McMullen said that the decision would create as much dissatisfaction in Canada as there was in the Transvaal and in Ireland.

ROOSEVELT SENDS MANY MESSAGES

Minister Powell Tells Dominican President Nice Things from the President.

San Domingo, Republic of Santo Domingo, Oct. 23.—United States Minister Powell yesterday delivered at the National palace an autograph letter from President Roosevelt, congratulating General Wos Gil upon his selection as constitutional president of the republic. Mr. Powell referred to the kind wishes of the president and the American people, adding that if the Dominicans desired to maintain friendship it was necessary for the government of Santo Domingo to live up to its obligations.

President Gil replied that Santo Domingo intended to act in complete accord with the United States. Mrs. Anna Boltz committed suicide in a police cell at Davenport, Iowa, from disarrange at being arrested as a shoplifter.

MARKET REPORT FROM CHICAGO

General Gossip from the Wheat Pit of the Windy City.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 23.—Wheat—Wheat opened 1/4 to 3/8 higher on better cables. The buying by the elevator interests advanced the December to 80 1/2 and 79 for the May. At top prices the profit taking weakened the market half a cent. The market was well supported on the little recession and held firm balance of session, closing at about the best prices of the day. The war scare between Russia and Japan had a stimulating effect. We believe wheat will do better and should be bought on all recessions.

Corn—Corn opened strong with a good demand for the May from commission houses and dealers. Light offerings held the market strong throughout the day, closing at the high prices made. Primary receipts, 543,200 against 416,530 last year. The situation in corn is strong. The shipping demand good and cash demand 1/2 cent higher. We believe corn will do better and advice picking it up on all recessions.

Oats—Oats opened steady a fraction higher in sympathy with wheat and corn. The offerings were light. The market held strong during the session. The shipping demand is good. We look for higher prices in oats and think they should be taken on all little dips.

Provisions opened dull a fraction lower with hogs. The trade was light and mostly local. There was little feature in the trading. FLOYD, CRAWFORD & CO.

JAPAN IS READY FOR A CONFLICT

Preliminary Order of Mobilization of Thirtieth Army Division Said To Have Been Issued.

Yokohama, Oct. 23.—The Asahi of Tokyo announced today that a preliminary mobilization order has been issued to the Thirtieth army division. Though this was officially denied, the report coincides with much open preparation against contingencies. Thirteen vessels of the Japanese standing squadron are engaged in gun practice off Sasebo, twenty-five miles from Nagasaki.

RUSSIA WARNING WAS RECEIVED

The Russian Bear Waxes Indignant at Japan's Intrusion of an Army in Manchurian Question.

London, Oct. 23.—A dispatch to Reuters' Telegram company from Tokyo says: "It is reported from Peking that M. Lessor, the Russian minister, has addressed a long note to Prince Ching, head of the Chinese foreign office, saying that Japan's interference in the Manchurian question will compel Russia to adopt final measures, and threatening China with severe punishment if she sides with Japan."

The Great American Hen.

It will astonish not a few people to be told that the most valuable of our crops, excepting only corn, wheat and hay, is eggs. The lay of the American hen is worth about $300,000,000 a year. All the cattle and hogs slaughtered in the country are worth less, and so is the country's total yield of both gold and silver.

Before-Dinner Speeches.

In Japan what are called "after-dinner speeches" are made before dinner, thus insuring brevity, and at the same time furnishing topics for conversation during the meal itself.

STATE NOTES

Levi Fullwiler was killed by a thrashing engine at Granton yesterday.

George Kalina, employed in the Illinois mine at North Freedom, near Baraboo, was killed instantly yesterday by falling rock.

Former Congressman Clinton Babbitt was thrown from his carriage in a runaway accident at Beloit yesterday and severely bruised.

The American Waterworks and Guarantee company of Pittsburg, Pa., is now the sole owner of the Racine Water company plant.

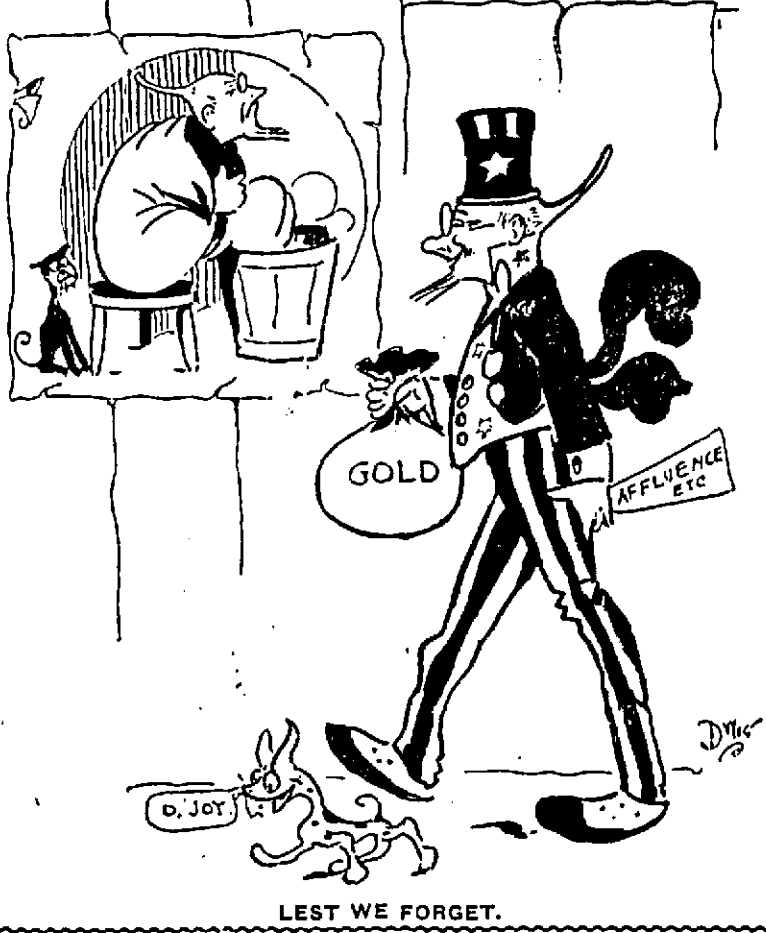

Paul Paschke, who was arrested in Milwaukee and taken back to Johnson Creek on a charge of theft, has been sent to jail for six months.

Roswell Wells, a Chicago man, employed as a farm hand, was kicked on the head by a horse while cleaning out a barn at Racine and may die.

As the result of stepping on a rusty nail surgeons found it necessary to amputate the leg of Alexander C. Morrison, one of the old settlers of Viroqua. It is feared he will die.

Mrs. Evelyn Sherwood, arrested at Racine, charged with issuing forged checks, is still alive, although she threatened to end her life and was taken with heart trouble at the jail.

A man who gave his name as Frank Anderson was arrested at Madison on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, he having canvassed the city several days, offering a year's subscription to a journal and a set of china dishes for $1 paid in advance.

BULGARIA READY FOR A CONFLICT

WILL WAIT UNTIL SPRING FOR REAL WAR.

IT WAS ONLY AVERTED NOW

Fighting Will Begin Early in the Spring with Renewed Vigor.

(Special By Scripps-McLear.) Salonica, Macedonia, Oct. 23.—All the Balkan indications point to war next spring unless the Russo-Austrian treaty, to be presented soon, provides real alleviation for the distressed conditions in Macedonia.

The latest news from the frontier is that Bulgaria is continually strengthening her strategic positions. Troops have been billeted in every village in the frontier region. Owing to the rapid advance of winter the condition of the refugees in the mountains is increasingly pitiful.

Insurgents Thinned Out. A considerable number of insurgents have surrendered in response to the sultan's last call. The first of these who surrendered were beaten and imprisoned, but under stringent orders from the Yildiz palace, all the men who are now coming in are well received and have been pardoned.

This, however, does not indicate the collapse of the rebellion, but is in conformance with the revolutionary committee's decision to thin out the insurgent bands during the winter and retain under arms an aggregate of only 3,500 men.

Leaders Stand Firm. The insurgents who are coming in leave their rifles with the leaders, who secrete them in the mountains, in readiness for operations in the spring. Not one of the leaders has surrendered.

The revolutionary committee declares that if the powers do not succeed in causing the establishment of a satisfactory form of government by spring, every available man will be called out and every desperate method for gaining the ends of the revolutionists will be resorted to.

WINTHROP IS NOT WANTED AT ALL

Philippine Commission Decide to Cable President a Business Man Is Needed.

Manila, Oct. 23.—A committee appointed by the American chamber of commerce in this city appeared before the Philippine commission and submitted a cablegram to President Roosevelt recommending the appointment of a business man of the United States as a member of the commission upon the retirement of Governor Taft.

There is a pronounced objection here to the proposal that the president appoint Beckman Winthrop, ex-assistant executive secretary to the vacancy, and several heads of the department say they will resign if Winthrop gets the position. It is said that the commission favors General George W. Davis.

KRATZ IS TAKEN WHILE IN MEXICO

The Alleged St. Louis Boodler Is Held Waiting Extradition to the United States.

Guadalajara, Mex., Oct. 23.—Chas. Kratz, the fugitive from St. Louis, under indictment there for bribery, was arrested here today and is held for extradition under orders from the federal government in the city of Mexico. Kratz is one of the gang of alleged bootleggers.

Leo Gower, proprietor of a creamery near Alma Center, has made a voluntary assignment.

CHEAP MONEY NOT DESIRED

EXCELLENT SPEECH MADE AT BANKERS' CONVENTION TODAY.

THE GOLD BASIS IS SECURE

Ellis Roberts Gives Much Food for Reflection to the Assembled Meeting.

(Special By Scripps-McLear.) San Francisco, Oct. 23.—Ellis Roberts, assistant treasurer to the United States, made the principal address at today's session of the bankers' convention. He said in part: "Our currency rests absolutely solid on its rock bottom of gold. The American people have declared not once, but twice, and will always that they want no cheap money, but the best in the world." Speaking of the present financial conditions he declared the promotion of stocks and bonds is not industry, but speculation. Those who have climbed too high in the realm of credit must come down, but the shrinking of inflated securities to their true value is not a public calamity. Our financial system must not totter, much less be wrecked.

ANOTHER BOAT IS PLANNED FOR

Watson Is Considering Propositions for Challengers from Two Englishmen.

London, Oct. 23.—Despite the fact that W. H. Lever of Birkenhead has denied having any intention to challenge for the America's cup, the fact that he has asked George L. Watson if he would undertake the work of designing and superintending a cup challenger is now admitted by leading yachtsmen.

Mr. Watson, thus far, has neither definitely declined nor accepted, and this possibly explains Mr. Lever's denial, as he is not likely to act without Mr. Watson. The latter's answer may be affected by the fact that a well-known Clyde yachtsman, a lifelong friend of Mr. Watson, contemplates challenging, and broached the subject to the yacht designer before Mr. Lever.

KING MAKES A FINE PRESENT

Edward VII. Presents an Insurance Company with Costly Hound, for Mascot.

York, Pa., Oct. 23.—To have a fine, graceful greyhound from the royal kennels of King Edward of England is the proud distinction which the Royal Fire company of this city can now claim. Hiram Faust some time ago asked the king for a greyhound as a company mascot. Congressman D. F. Lefan also signed the request. His majesty honored this request by forwarding a fine specimen of high-bred greyhound and the dog arrived today. The Royal named its acquisition "King Edward."

Pleasant Party. Mr. and Mrs. James O'Donnell gave a card party last evening at their home on Academy street. About forty friends were present. Refreshments being served at small tables. All enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Poor Crops. Charles Thompson returned last night from Viola Falls, North Dakota, where he has been with a threshing outfit. He says that the crops this year are very poor in North Dakota and that many farmers have been unable to thresh owing to the wet weather.

John H. Howe will at once establish a pants and overall factory at Lancaster.

SWINDLER HAD UNLIMITED NERVE

Took in Several Janesville Merchants to the Tune of $41 on Saturday Last.

An unknown swindler giving his name as Gus Anderson and representing himself to be an employee of Skelly & Wilbur's grocery store trapped several unwary merchants in a neat little forgery game Wednesday night. The man went into the South Jackson street grocery of Skelly and Wilbur at 5:30 blank check. Fred Wilbur tore out from the back of the book one of the firm's private banking checks and gave it to him. The stranger filled out the check and went directly to C. S. Putnam's South Main street store.

Bought a Sideboard. At Putnam's he purchased a $22 sideboard, agreeing to pay $15 down and allow the balance to be collected. He directed that the sideboard be sent to 113 North Franklin street. In payment he presented one of Skelly & Wilbur's private checks made out to him in the name of the firm for $28. The change amounting to $13 was turned over to him, and he departed.

Made Haul at Lowell's. About twenty minutes after six he called at Lowell's hardware store, purchased a coal stove of Frank Douglas, and presenting a check for $28, signed as before Skelly & Wilbur, received $15 in change. This check was drawn on the Savings bank.

Victimized McNamara. A few moments after nine o'clock, just before the doors were closed at McNamara's hardware store, the same man entered and asked to look at coal stoves. He selected one worth $20, offering to pay half down. Just before the clerk showed the check for $28 supposedly drawn on the First National bank by Skelly & Wilbur, to Mr. McNamara who was busy buying goods in another part of the store, the stranger said that he might as well pay fifteen dollars down and only owe five on the stove, which was listed at $20. The check was accepted and change amounting to $13 returned to him.

Far, Far Away Now. It is the general opinion that the man with his easy gotten $41 left for Minneapolis or some equally distant point immediately after his last piece of work. The fraud was not discovered until yesterday morning when the three firms attempted to deliver the purchases. Mrs. Anderson who lives at 113 North Franklin street knew nothing of the man.

Writing Undisguised. The fellow made no effort to imitate the signature of Skelly & Wilbur, and had the checks passed through the banks the fraud would have been detected at once. He is described as a man of about twenty-five years of age, with light complexion and a light mustache. His height is medium and he would tip the scales at about 140 pounds. He had red cheeks and was evidently of Scandinavian or German parentage. "It was easy money—we might as well charge it to profit and loss and waste no more good coin in trying to capture him," said one of the merchants.

BRITISH MINERS DECRY TARIFES

Trades' Unions Say It Will Damage the Countries Interested Very Materially.

London, Oct. 23.—The Miners' Federation of Great Britain today considered Joseph Chamberlain's tariff proposals and passed a resolution declaring any change in the fiscal policy of the country would be detrimental to its general interests.

It is reported that the differences between Colombia and Nicaragua growing out of the old revolutionary wars of both countries received during the recent rebellions will be arbitrated by President Diaz of Mexico.

MONTANA MINES ARE IDLE NOW

Judge Clancy Decides That Amalgamated Company Has No Standing At All.

PLANTS ARE SHUT

Twenty Thousand Men Are Thrown Out of Work by the Court's Rulings.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 23.—Judge William Clancy of the District court has granted injunctions against the Boston and Montana and the Parrot Mining companies to prevent the payment of any dividends to the Amalgamated Copper company, and in effect declared the Amalgamated Copper company an outlaw, without rights as a stockholder in the subsidiary companies. He held in abeyance the matter of appointing a receiver for the Boston and Montana and Parrot, but intimated that he might appoint one later if the necessity for it appeared. The injunction prevents the Amalgamated company from collecting dividends, of which more than $3,000,000 is already tied up by the injunction.

Closes Many Plants.

The action is the result of the bitter warfare between the Amalgamated companies and P. A. Heinze, the district judge being uniformly in favor of Heinze in all litigation.

The result of the injunctions has been an order from Amalgamated officials to close down all the Amalgamated properties in Montana, including the mines in Anaconda and Great Falls, the coal and coke mines and plants at Diamondville, Wyo., Horr and Belt, Mont., and the timber mills at Bonner, Hamilton, Mont., and other places. The order has gone into effect and the shut-down will be indefinite. About 20,000 men will be thrown out of work. The shut-down will continue until the mining companies can get a final decision from the Supreme court as to their rights. No orders regarding the shut-down have been received from New York, the matter being left solely to the local officials.

Amalgamated Has No Rights.

In his decision Judge Clancy holds that, notwithstanding the state law that one corporation can hold and control stock in another, the common law prevails against the Amalgamated and that the latter is nothing more than a stranger without any right as a stockholder in the Parrot, or Boston and Montana.

At the same time Clancy also decides the famous Minnie Healey mine case in favor of Heinze again, and against the Boston and Montana, turning the property valued at $5,000,000 over to Heinze on an alleged oral contract entered into with Miles Finley, a former owner of the lease and options on the property, and who subsequently sold to the Boston and Montana, repudiating any agreement with Heinze. The Minnie Healey is the mine out of which grew the judicial scandal a year ago involving Judge Harney, who tried the first case and was accused of corruption.

POLITICAL WAR ON IN COLOMBIA.

Senate Plans to Remain in Session To Block Aspirants for Office of President.

Panama, Oct. 23.—Advices from Bogota under date of October 12, via Barranquilla, report the senate's intention to maintain the sessions of congress indefinitely if possible until Dec. 6, when the presidential election will take place throughout the republic. In the meantime checkmating President Marroquin to prevent him from imposing on official candidates. Eventually this will provoke a serious conflict between the executive and congress, and may precipitate matters to such an extent that it will be impossible to foretell what will happen.

CLAIM WAR HAS BEEN DECLARED

Statement Is Made by Japanese Representative in Honolulu and Cabled Here.

Honolulu, Oct. 23.—The local Japanese consul has just warned the master of the Japanese mail steamer sailing for Yokohama that war has been declared. The Japanese mate of the Japanese mail steamer Nippon Maru visited the consulate and informed the captain on his return that he had been told that war had been declared. The consulate clerks deny receiving the news. The captain credits the report and is worried. He will call at Midway Islands for advices.

New London decided at the polls yesterday to erect an electric light plant.

TRUANT OFFICER IS INQUIRED FOR

BY FACTORY INSPECTOR—NECESSARY ACCORDING TO LAW.

REFERRED TO THE COMMITTEE

Fifty Dollars Fine for Violation of School Section—Amendment Given Below.

When the state factory inspector was in Janesville, other things occurred besides the arrests of prominent factory managers. The factory inspector, in his zealous quest for transgressors of the law inquired who was truant officer and was told that there was none. Then he reminded the officer the board of the new law. The board meets the third Monday in each month and the matter was left with the teachers' committee to recommend some plan that might be acted upon at the next meeting of the board.

The Amended Section.
In the session laws of 1923, section 439B was amended to read: In all cities of the first class the board of education, or any board having similar powers, shall appoint three or more truant officers and in all other cities having more than 10,000 population by the last United States or state census, such board shall appoint one or more truant officers whose duty it shall be to see that the provisions of this and the last preceding section are enforced, and when of his personal knowledge, or by report or complaint from any resident of the city, the truant officer believes that any child is unlawfully and habitually absent from school and not otherwise receiving instruction as provided in section 439B as amended, he shall immediately investigate and render all services in his power, acting discreetly to compel such child to attend some public, parochial or private school which the person having control of the child shall designate, or is over 14 years of age to attend school or become regularly employed at home or elsewhere, and upon failure he shall serve a written notice upon the person having control of such child requiring him to place such child in some public, private or parochial school within five days, and if such person shall fail to comply with such notice without legal excuse within the specified time, the truant officer shall prosecute such person in the manner provided in the preceding section.

Must Attend Certain Time.
That part of the amendment relating to the age of children and the length of time it is necessary for them to attend school each year is as follows: Section 439A—Any person having under his control any child between the ages of seven and fourteen years or any child between the ages of fourteen and sixteen years not regularly and lawfully employed in any useful employment or service at home or elsewhere, shall cause such child to be enrolled and to attend some public, private or parochial school regularly, during school period and hours of the calendar year (religious holidays excepted) as the public parochial or private school in which such child is enrolled may be in session; provided, that in cities such child must attend school not less than eight calendar months.

Fifty Dollars Fine.
Few father and mothers are aware that if they do not send their boy to school or keep him otherwise employed, they are liable to a fine of $50 or three months' imprisonment in the county jail. The following is the reading of the law in this regard: Occasional legitimate absence from school attendance or instruction, shall not be deemed a violation of the provisions of this section. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than $5.00 nor more than $50. or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding three months for each offense.

CONDUCTORS ARE MUCH DISTURBED

Official Ax Falls on Conductors on Northern Branch of the St. Paul System.

Pinkerton detectives in the unknown garb of "spotters" have caused the discharge in the past few days of several conductors on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road, on a charge of accepting cash "side money" at a cut rate in lieu of regular fare from travelers.

Railroad officials and employees refuse to make public the names of the men discharged but it is understood that none of them are residents of Janesville.

For some times, according to what can be learned of the sensational affair, the officials of the La Crosse and River divisions of the road have been troubled with conductors who would persist in accepting a short cash fare which they would put in their own pockets. As a result a number of Pinkerton detectives were employed and placed on runs to watch the conductors. The result was almost immediate as several have been discharged within a week and others have been notified to appear at the headquarters of the divisions.

The practice is one which has been followed, according to the claims of some of the railroad men, for many years and the secret investigation may result in the discharge of a number of the supposedly reliable employees.

WEDDED TWO MONTHS AGO

Friends of W. J. Hamilton Surprised by Announcement of His Marriage on August 8.

An announcement has just been made of the marriage on August 8, of W. J. Hamilton, son of Mrs. D. M. Barlass of this city, and Miss Harriet Peake of South Milwaukee. Mr. Hamilton is principal of the New London high school. For some reason no announcement of the wedding has been made until this time. Mrs. Barlass will visit with her son and daughter-in-law in South Milwaukee, Sunday.

MANY EVENTS IN SOCIAL WORLD

Mrs. Heimstreet Gave a Tea and Card Party—Other Functions.

A five o'clock tea was given by Mrs. E. B. Heimstreet at her North Main street home and about thirty of her friends were present. Six handed euchre was played previous to the luncheon and Mrs. W. W. Watt was the winner of the first prize, while Mrs. David Fildfield carried away the lucky number prize.

The members of the Main street whist club will be entertained by Mrs. E. J. Smith this afternoon in honor of Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Sutton Norris.

The Ladies' Afternoon Whist club will be entertained by Mrs. Maud Sloan at her East street home Saturday afternoon.

MAY IMPROVE THE GRAVEL PIT SOON

Knickebocker Company Will Use Portions of Money Raised, Increasing Facility of Janesville Branch.

From dispatches from La Porte, Indiana, it is learned that the Knickebocker Ice company with the register of deeds throughout the different counties where the company has property is for the purpose of raising money to make many improvements on their present holdings. Among the properties to be improved and increased is the gravel pit at the edge of Janesville. Beyond the purchase of several acres of adjoining property. Just what changes will be made by the Chicago firm is not yet known. It is probable, however, that the plant will be improved and enlarged as the quality of gravel is considered to be the finest quality of any quarry in the country.

WEDDING BOOM STILL CONTINUES

Big Mercantile Concern in Illinois Town, Establishes a Department for Marriages of Guests.

Rockford is becoming a veritable Gretna Green for Janesville people and in fact for all southern Wisconsin. Scarcely a day goes by but some one of the busy justices down in the bustling little Illinois city does not have a wedding to perform and the interurban people are seriously thinking of running a special bridal train through from Janesville to Rockford with special rates to all intending brides and grooms. To such an extent have Wisconsin weddings multiplied in Rockford that a local mercantile house has fitted up a parlor in which the weddings may take place. The room is substantially furnished as a meeting room, where the bride and groom, the minister, and the witnesses may gather. More than 200 marriages of Wisconsin folks have taken place in this city this year.

FELL FROM CHAIR—BROKE ARM

Small Son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis McLaughlin Suffers Accident.

The five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis McLaughlin fell out of a chair last evening and broke his arm. Dr. Woods cared for the little sufferer. The boy lost his balance in some way while in the chair and fell on his arm, so as to fracture the bone.

Hon. S. T. Merrill, of Beloit, was in the city Thursday.

GENERAL GOSSIP OF STOCK MARKET

Reports from Chicago Show That Feeders Do Not Bring Top Prices Now.

Cattle—Receipts have increased a little over 10,000 head this week compared with same period last week and we have had a pretty slow declining market up to today. While we had a liberal run today (25,000) the proportion of choice cattle was not so large and on that kind a little strength was shown, one choice load of polled angus selling at $5.90, but all others kinds sold slowly but about steady.

Butcher stuff is as low as anytime this year and today we had a slow trade. Cows selling from 3c to 3½c have declined the most of late for the reason that they come into competition with cheap native steers and westerns and the latter are preferred when they cost but little more. Feeders seem to be in a stampede to market their unmatured cattle and why this is so we have failed, as yet, to discover. The country is full of feed; prices for feeders are fully 50c below last year; not so many are going on feed this fall as last year and the demand for beef is good and growing all the time with the development of our country so why should we not have better prices later on in the winter when there will be less cattle to market? It looks to us as though there would be a good profit in feeding this winter.

Hog—Last week's total ($2,847) was the lightest week's receipts in over eight years and the lightest week on record for October. Packers pounded the market so hard the week before that hogs could not be bought in the country so as to pay out here, the result was, our receipts were way below normal and a sharp advance resulted. Today our market was mostly 5c higher and in isolated cases as much as 10c higher with a top at $5.70, the same as yesterday.

Pork has decreased 4,400 brls. and lard 12,000 tons during October but short ribs increased 4,200,000 lbs., which is not a good showing on ribs considering the light receipts this month. The demand is hardly up to normal and we believe prices will decline some more although for the immediate future we should have a little more reaction after the sharp decline the last three days.

Sheep—Receipts last week were 142,667, the third largest week on record, but falling 25 head below the next high week. The same week last year was the record week, 162,459 head. Our market today was featureless and prices steady to strong.

Yours very respectfully,
DANIELS, WELLS & CARPENTER.

NEW SOCIETY WAS FORMED

Many Present Last Evening at Good Templars' Hall—Fraternal Reserve Association.

Seventy-five people were present at Good Templars' hall last evening, when State Deputy F. A. Kremer, of Oshkosh, formed a branch order of the Fraternal Reserve association. Officers were elected and other business connected with the forming of a new society was gone through with. Much enthusiasm was shown. The following well known people were elected to office: President, W. H. Ashcraft, Jr.; vice president, R. H. Lee; secretary, H. D. Mordock; sergeant, F. J. Dick; doorkeeper, Ed. Marshall; messenger, J. T. Fitchett; physician, Dr. Frank Farnsworth; physician, Dr. W. H. Judd; assistant sergeant, E. F. Schumacher; judges, H. C. Hemmingsway, H. O. Schmiedley, David Brown; pianist, W. H. Schmaekel.

LITTLE RIDING FOR THE TOBACCO MEN

Reports Show the Buyers Are Slow This Season—Conditions Very Good.

Matters are practically at a standstill regarding the movement of the new tobacco crop, no riding of any account being done in any of the growing sections. The impression is gaining that buying will not be resumed to any extent until the crop is cured and can be examined in the bundle. The weather conditions continue as favorable for the curing as could be desired for, and the crop seems destined to come through with lighter color than usual.

Sampling of the '02 crop is drawing to a close and while the samples are ready for inspection, no large sales of cured leaf have been reported. There are rumors afloat of some good sized transactions but trades are not yet completed. One dealer reports the sale of many cases of 1901 goods to an eastern manufacturer.

Two new freight engines of the Wisconsin Central arrived at Fond du Lac Wednesday and will be used between Abbotford and Chicago. They are of the consolidated type and weigh 160,000 pounds.

MRS. LOVEJOY ENTERTAINS

Is Hostess at Delightful Luncheon Yesterday Afternoon.

At one o'clock yesterday afternoon Mrs. A. P. Lovejoy, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Walter, of New York city entertained at luncheon sixty of her friends. The guests were seated at small tables and the luncheon was charmingly served. The rooms were pleasantly decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums, ferns, potted plants and palms.

EASTERN CROP IS DOING WELL

SHADE GROWN TOBACCO HAS DONE BETTER THAN EXPECTED.

EASTERN SALE CONDITIONS

Wisconsin Seed Curing Generally in Good Form—Safely in Sheds.

Weather conditions continue favorable and the leaf is curing nicely. Some of the earlier harvested leaf is so far advanced that stripping has already been begun in a few instances. The curing has been so rapid that indications are that portions of the late harvested crops will cure out with as desirable colors as the earlier portion, in which case it will be the better part of the crop, for the leaf is larger and sounder and free from shed damage. On the whole growers are well contented with autumn conditions, which have in a measure offset the bad weather during the harvest.

Buyers of the New Crop Slow.
Little buying of the new crop is going on, dealers holding back until more reliable information can be obtained regarding the character of the leaf. There has been considerable activity in the cured leaf market, and several transactions of importance are reported. Though there has been a good deal of sampling of the 1902 crop, but little has been offered in the eastern markets. Shipments out of storage from Edgerton for the week amounted to five hundred cases.

Eastern Shade Grown.
The conditions of the New England shade grown crop are generally good, the plants getting into the shed in much better condition than was expected earlier in the season. Curing is going on finely, the leaves having, in most instances, a bright cinnamon color and good body. No cases of shed damage have been reported. As to prices little has as yet been heard. Much is said to rest with the 1902 crop for here are large amounts of this, still unsold.

Sell Too Soon.
Growers say that they have not been buying to sell and that their crops have been improving in the case every week. Some believe that in the past, there has been altogether too much of this kind of tobacco put upon the market, before it is really ready. They will not sell at what they consider to be a fair price. The 1902 crop promises to be one of the easiest to handle that has ever been grown in the Connecticut valley. The plants have grown low and the leaves, according to correspondents reports are unusually free from damage from hail or insects.

WIT'S LINK Gossip of Interest to Railroad Men.

North-Western Road. Cashier Alva Hemmings, who has been spending a vacation on a hunting trip in Montana, is expected home this evening.

The sewer pipes under the North-Western depot platform are being repaired.

J. Bliss, boiler maker, was the lucky participant in a contest for a $45 Remington hammerless double barreled shot gun at the roundhouse last night. He was passing the cigars this morning.

The stealing of the locomotive last night was the principal topic of discussion in the yards this morning. One engineer believed that it was a deliberate attempt to wreck passenger train No. 503, which was backed from Caledonia Junction to Harvard and sent over the old line when the theft was discovered. According to his version of the story the runaway engine was left behind a big hill just behind the curve a mile and a half from Roscoe and her lights were put out. According to the latest reports from Beloit, however, it appears that there was no conscious purpose in the mind of the man who set the engine going to commit such a crime.

St. Paul Road.
Operator Jacobs has returned from his trip to Sigourney, Iowa, and expects to resume work in a day or two. Operator Gesme who has been relieving him, will resume his position at the night desk.

The harvesting of the sugar beet crop is now in full away and a long stream of wagons on North Main St. bringing the beets to the St. Paul freight depot, is daily in evidence. One car was loaded today. The beets are shipped to Menominee Falls.

District Passenger Agent W. W. Winton was at the depot today.

General Foreman Fox was in Milwaukee yesterday.

Brakeman Brary who has been on the sick list is reported to be better and able to be around.

General Railroad News

The Milwaukee and Burlington roads have agreed to return to the thirteen-hour schedule between the Twin Cities and Chicago for the winter. W. B. Dixon, northwestern passenger agent of the Milwaukee road, says the Pioneer Limited will leave St. Paul at 8:30 p. m., instead of 9:35, and arrive in Chicago at 9:30 the next morning, thus restoring the original running time of twelve hours and fifty-five minutes. Assistant General Manager W. J. Underwood, E. D. Fowall, assistant general superintendent, and Supt. Irwin of the South Minnesota division are making a trip of inspection over the Southern Minnesota division.

Three Color Printing...

The beautiful color plates you notice in the magazines and printed matter of various sorts are certainly as near art as any produced in the printing line. The work has the appearance of being difficult to perform—and this is true—yet the Printing Department of the Gazette is producing some of this 3 color plate printing in an equal manner with the best printing plants in the cities.

The explanation of the process is very interesting and the work itself is worth the time of those who watch the development of the printers art. Chas. L. Mohr, Superintendent of the Gazette Dept. of Printing will be pleased to explain all about fine printing to those interested.

COUNTY NEWS

RICHMOND

Richmond, Oct. 22.—There will be an entertainment at the Richmond school house this evening.

All those who attended the Shannahan barn dance report a delightful time. Over 100 couple were in attendance.

The Misses Elsie and Alice Keith entertained a number of their young friends at a "poverty party" Saturday evening.

Refreshments were served on tin plates, cups, etc., and the big fat doughnuts, the kind that mother used to make, were stung on a broom handle and passed around.

As entertainers the Misses Keith take the lead and if such good times may be had in "poverty" we are willing to remain in that state.

Benjamin Clark injured his hand quite badly while at Darion last week.

James DeLaney and Miss Ida Morris of South Grove, will be married next Wednesday.

The peanut social at the home of Mrs. J. E. Nott Friday evening was largely attended and $5.00 was raised to the fund.

Mrs. G. M. Holbrook captured the prize for finding the most peanuts.

Miss Tierney of Chicago, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Ida Shannahan.

There will be a Sunday school concert at the M. E. church Sunday evening.

The new pastor and family are here and are at home in the parsonage.

MILTON

Milton, Oct. 22.—The survivors of the 42nd Illinois Infantry held a reunion at Momence, Ill., this week. Jay Campbell, who did service in that organization in the "sixties," with his wife and daughter, Lois, were in attendance and are now visiting relatives in Grant Park and Chicago.

If the game wardens rid the lakes of Wisconsin of that barmy fish, the carp, it will furnish a reasonable excuse for their existence.

Miss Candace Lowther is confined to her room by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Thomas think of spending the winter in Colorado. President Daland was tendered the position of organist in the Congregational church at Janesville, but felt obliged to decline.

Dr. E. A. Fetherston of Chicago, visited Milton relatives this week.

Wm. Oates has sold his land and house on High street to David Titus, of the Junction, who will make this ally on the field of battle. This will be news to the soldiers who have served under him; not one of them having ever mentioned it.

We prefer to wait for more evidence before believing all these stories. They are too new, and too numerous, just now to be satisfactory.

New York, Oct. 23.—The World's special says: Thus far Lee has retreated without stopping to make any considerable resistance, and the main body of his army are now reported beyond the Rapidan. I understand orders have been issued to push him to the wall and force him to a battle, but whether under present circumstances a battle will be obtained or risked, is matter of conjecture.

If the rebel commander as now seems probable, gets fairly out of fighting distance, you may expect to hear that the fate of Rosecrans has been visited upon Gen. Meade, who has been certainly too cautious in pursuit; indeed, it is reliably said that Gen. Sedgwick and Sickles are already talked of to succeed him, unless he shall yet retrieve himself, in the eyes of the administration.

The New York papers say that Rosecrans, Crittenden and McCook, were asleep at Chattanooga during the battle. How Rosecrans could ride from the battle ground while asleep, or how Crittenden and McCook could see him under the influence of opium while they slumbered, is not easy to explain.

There is also a statement that he is subject to fits of epilepsy, especially when he is on the field of battle. This will be news to the soldiers who have served under him; not one of them having ever mentioned it.

THE MI-ONA TREATMENT.
Flesh-Forming Food in Tablet Form That Increases Flesh—Guaranteed By King's Pharmacy and Peoples Drug Co.

The discovery of Mi-on-a, the remarkable flesh-forming food that builds up good, healthy, solid flesh and makes thinness and scrawiness a thing of the past, has revolutionized medical practice in certain lines.

Its power to do all that is claimed for it was so clearly proven to Peoples Drug Co. and King's Pharmacy that they now sell Mi-on-a with the understanding that if it fails the purchase price was to be refunded.

King's Pharmacy and Peoples Drug Co. certainly exhibited courage in taking up this method of selling Mi-on-a, but the results have fully proven their judgment that the Mi-on-a treatment for stomach troubles, emaciation, general weakness and run down condition is the only efficacious and reliable cure.

Mi-on-a possesses healing and soothing qualities that makes it especially valuable in cases of chronic indigestion and dyspepsia. Two or three tablets taken each day in connection with the regular food prove it a true flesh former.

All that many a woman lacks to be positively pretty is a little more flesh on her face. To look haggard or not fat is never becoming. The use of Mi-on-a will cure this defect.

With every 50 cent box of Mi-on-a that King's Pharmacy and Peoples Drug Co. sells they will give a written promise to refund the money if it does not give an increase in flesh and restore strength. What a trifling cost this is if it makes you well; if it fails, the expense is absolutely nothing.

Had No Appetite.

25 EMILY STREET, CRAFTON, PA., AUGUST 15, 1903.

Mrs. S. Cummins says: "I had been troubled with indigestion for several months. This made me weak and nervous and my appetite was very poor. I disliked the sight of food. I tried a change of air, then various medicines, all of which did me no good. My cousin, who was visiting me from Indiana, recommended Paine's Celery Compound. I have taken two bottles and now my appetite is splendid. I have gained nearly 15 pounds in the last month."

JAPANESE IMPORTS.

Imports into Japan from the United States for the first time exceed those from the United Kingdom. In the six months ending with June, 1903, the imports into Japan from the United States were 24,950,493 yen, against 23,803,654 from the United Kingdom. This is the first annual or semi-annual period in which the imports from the United States into Japan have exceeded those of the United Kingdom. In 1881 the imports into Japan from the United States were less than 2 million yen, against more than 16 millions from the United Kingdom; in 1891, from the United States a little less than 7 million yen, against 20 millions from the United Kingdom; in 1900, 62 million yen from the United States, against 71 million yen from the United Kingdom; in 1901 and 1902, the following the increase in the Japanese tariff, the total imports into that country showed a considerable reduction and as a consequence the imports from the United States in 1902 were but 49,652,824 yen, against 50,264,029 yen from the United Kingdom. In the six months ending with June, 1903, the imports from the United States were 24,950,490 yen against 23,803,654 yen from the United Kingdom. In 1881 the United States furnished less than 6 per cent of the imports into Japan and the United Kingdom furnished over 52 per cent. In 1902 the United States furnished 17.9 per cent of the total imports and the United Kingdom 18.5 per cent, while in the six months ending with June, 1903, the United States supplied 15 per cent of the imports into Japan and the United Kingdom 14.3 per cent.

One cause of the reduction in imports from the United States into Japan since 1900 is the fact that that country is in recent years buying more largely of her raw cotton from India. The total value of imports into Japan from India has grown from less than 8 million yen in 1892 to 49 yen in 1902, and in the six months ending with June, 1903, was 39,680,954 yen. The importations of ginned cotton into Japan from the United States amounted in 1900 to 1,112,534 piculs and in 1902 to 731,800 piculs, while from India the imports of ginned cotton in 1900 were 739,073 piculs and in 1902, 1,768,189 piculs. The value of imports of raw cotton from the United States in 1900 was 27 million yen and in 1902 1 million yen, while that from India was, in 1900 17 million yen, and in 1902, 39 million yen.

This partial transfer of the cotton trade of Japan from the United States to India accounts for the fact that the percentage which the United States supplied of the total imports of Japan in 1902 and the first half of 1903 was less than in 1900, in which year we supplied 21.96 per cent of the total imports of Japan.

WHAT COLOMBIA WANTS

The news that Colombia is prepared to negotiate a new Panama Canal treaty with the United States, on the basis of an increased payment by this country for the privilege of completing construction of the canal, is no surprise, says the Wall Street Journal. There were three reasons why Colombia refused to ratify the treaty that had been accepted by this government. One of these reasons was purely political and concerned the unsettled and delicate condition of the competing parties in Colombia. That reason does not materially concern the United States. The second reason was patriotic. Colombia objected to parting with her territory. As a matter of fact the recent canal treaty did not, technically provide for any ceding of territory to the United States, for that would have been a violation of the constitution of Colombia. What the treaty did provide for was a lease of territory to the United States, practically in perpetuity. The Colombia people object to this, and yet it is difficult to see how we can as a nation construct the Panama Canal without having control of the territory through which it passes.

The third ground for Colombian objection to the canal treaty was pecuniary. She did not deem $10,000,000 sufficient payment for the privileges that she granted. Her diplomatic representative is now in this country to negotiate a treaty on a basis of an increase in the payment to be made by this country from $10,000,000 to $25,000,000. This is the most important of the three reasons. Colombia wants more money and wants it badly. She is not to be blamed perhaps for trying to make the best for herself possible, but there is a limit not merely to the financial ability of the U. S. government, but to our willingness to pay so largely for the Panama canal, when there is another route available through Nicaragua, which though not perhaps an equal in all respects to the other, has many advocates even on the basis of its greater availability.

There is every reason to believe that in the end a fairly satisfactory arrangement will be made with Colombia, and that the Panama canal will be constructed under American auspices. Such great enterprises are always subject to delay, and another year or two of negotiation should not imperil the completion of the undertaking.

Valentine's School of Telegraphy, Janesville, Wis.

Teaches its students a trade, and then starts them at work in the railroad or commercial telegraph service. Its graduates are given employment by all Western railroads and by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and passers are furnished from school to different destinations. It is a fact that nine-tenths of the great railroad officials of the country began as telegraph operators. The Presidents of the Chicago & Northwestern, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, the Northern Pacific, the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, as well as the General Managers General Superintendents and most of the Division Superintendents were first telegraph operators. Neither branch of the service offers such opportunities for advancement to the highest grades. No profession is so easily or quickly learned, or pays so good wages from the start.

The demand for operators is incessant and increasing. Join our school now, and in a few months you will be at work earning a salary and on the road to promotion if you deserve it. Call or write for catalogue.

FOOTBALL TALK FOR SATURDAY

TEAMS ALL OVER COUNTRY PLAY
FIRST GOOD GAMES.

GOOD GAME IN THIS CITY

Best Game in West Between Chicago and Illinois—Eastern Teams Play.

Big games are played both east and west tomorrow. Of course they are not the biggest games of the season but they are between more evenly matched teams than have hitherto played. A good line of Minnesota's playing can be found by watching what score they make against Beloit as compared with Wisconsin's score of last week. It is a certainty that Coach Williams' men will try as hard as they can as they expect championship honors later in the season and want to have as good a total as possible to show, in fact to beat Michigan's total of last year. If they go over the eighty-seven Wisconsin they will be doing well.

Other Games
Chicago takes on Coach Woodruff's men from Illinois. They should beat the Illinois boys but surprises have happened and it would not be strange to see the team down the state win out by a narrow margin. Michigan plays Drake and Wisconsin plays Knox. It would look as if it was only a question of which team can score the most and the results should be interesting numerically. Purdue plays Oberlin and this promises to be a close contest.

The Eastern Scores
The Harvard-Brown score will be interesting to get a line on Harvard's playing as compared with Pennsylvania whom she meets on November 7. Pennsylvania whipped the plucky Providence players 17 to 0 last Saturday and Harvard will have to go some to better that score. Pennsylvania takes on Columbia and the play should be interesting. Probably Columbia will cross the Quakers' line but a victory for the blue and red is looked for as an assured fact. Yale has West Point, Harvard's last opponents and the Soldiers should make the sons of Old Eli hustle to keep them from scoring.

Other Games
Princeton will have as their opponents Dartmouth and Dartmouth has been playing good ball this year and the Tigers will have to live up to past reputations to win by a score unless they have improved in the past week. Cornell has the Union team to practice on and Annapolis will show Lafayette that though their place is on the high seas they are good land crabs as well. Amherst should defeat Trinity by a good score and Carleton Indians swat it to Swathmore in true war dance style.

At Home
The game at Janesville also promises well and if present indications count should be most interesting to witness. The local high school team is a plucky lot of youngsters and if they have the proper support should make the Spring City boys from Waukesha hustle if they wish to be in it. The game is called at two so that it may be finished and the visitors leave for home by the late afternoon train.

GEORGE KEETER'S BARN IS BURNED

Quantity of Oats and Hay, and Household Articles Destroyed—No Insurance.

At 12:45 today the department was called in response to an alarm from box 461, near the corner of St. Mary's avenue. Neighbors of George Keeter, an expressman at 102 St. Mary's avenue, saw smoke and flames issuing from the roof of his two story frame barn and turned in the alarm.

Dense Smoke
It is quite a run to that part of town and by the time the department was on the scene, the fire had gained good headway. The smoke was very black and dense and at a distance it appeared to be a formidable conflagration. People in the vicinity of North Main street thought the Hanson furniture factory was in flames and there was a general scramble of townspeople to get over the hill and in sight of the disturbance.

Soon Under Control
After a few minutes' hard work the flames were under control, but had made such headway that the structure was practically burned to the ground. It was used by Keeter as a stable for his horse, but the animal was on the street at the time.

No Insurance
A quantity of oats and hay was burned and some household articles. The owner had gone down town just previous to the fire so was not aware of the loss of his property until after the barn was a charred mass of timbers. So far as could be learned, there was no insurance on the building.

ONE MAN CAUSED BIG COMMOTION

STARTED SWITCH ENGINE AT BELLOIT LAST NIGHT.

WRECK WAS JUST MISSED

Operator Stops Fast Passenger in Nick of Time, at Caledonia-- On a Jump.

Had it not been for the cool head of the telegraph operator in the Caledonia station on the North-Western road last night the Duluth passenger with its cargo of living freight would have dashed into a runaway engine on the tracks near Roscoe. As it was the train was stopped by one of the narrowest chances and a terrible accident averted.

Started Engine
It was about 10 o'clock when Roy Young, a coal passer in the Beloit Gas plant, walked from the engine room to the side of the mogul switch engine standing apparently dead on the Beloit side tracks. Companions saw him climb on board but thought nothing of it as he had been in the habit of doing the same thing many times before. A few moments later they looked again and found the engine missing. Young was questioned but appeared as surprised as they. Meanwhile the big engine was seen to slip onto the main track and head away for Caledonia and the oncoming Duluth special at full speed by the operator of the tower at the end of the Beloit yards.

Quick Work.
Swinging his key board wide open he called frantically for Caledonia and in a few seconds secured the operator there. It took but a second to tell him the danger and quickly the operator ran from his office to the platform. The big passenger was gaining headway for the pull to Beloit when he opened the door and it was only by super human efforts the operator succeeded in swinging onto the rear coach and pulling the air cord. When the train stopped and trainmen rushed back to find the cause they found the operator nearly insensible but he managed to tell of the danger ahead and the train was hurriedly backed onto a side track out of danger had the train been on time the accident must have come and many a Janesville family would this morning be mourning a missing member.

Much Excitement.
At Beloit all was confusion. The tower operator had notified the station operator and an engine attached to a freight was uncoupled and preceded by a man on a track bicycle went slowly down the track in search of the fugitive. Talk of robbers and a hold up of the coming express were rife and Chief Shubel had a posse of men ready to go to the scene of the supposed hold up when word came back that the engine had been found dead on the tracks near Roscoe. There was no head light and had the Duluth special come ahead instead of being stopped at Caledonia an awful horror would have resulted.

Young Arrested.
Meantime Young had been questioned closely but claimed no knowledge of the affair. Station Agent Howell was of the opinion that he knew more than he could tell and asked for his arrest. He was taken in custody and led to the city jail.

Young Confesses.
When confronted with the enormity of the crime and the probable results Young broke down completely and confessed his share in the strange happenings. He said he had gotten onto the engine to look around and had opened a valve and the lever thinking the engine was dead. To his surprise it started and when he tried to stop it he could not do so. Frightened he jumped from the fast moving cab and saw it slip away in the darkness.

Breaks Down.
After making this confession Young broke down completely and raved like a maniac all night. This morning he was allowed to go to his home it being feared he would lose his mind if he was locked up. It is said in Beloit that the railway company will not prosecute the man owing to his pitiful condition.

WEST-SIDE FIRE BELL ACQUIRES A NEW TONE

Brought Back Today from the East Where It Had Been Rinned Out.

The fire-bell of the west side engine house, which was taken down and sent away to be rinned out and re-toned several weeks ago, arrived at the freight depot yesterday and is being put up today. Many people hitherto objected to the tone of the bell, but it is expected now that its musical qualities will satisfy even the most fastidious.

Odd Fellows Tonight: The Odd Fellows will hold their inspection drill and prize presentation at West Side Odd Fellows hall this evening, as planned. The members are looking forward to an enjoyable time.

FEUDAL METHODS AGAIN IN VOGUE

NORTH MAIN STREET MERCHANT BUILDS A BARRICADE.

CLOSING EXIT TO NEIGHBOR

Who Lowered Portcullis of His Castle and Barred the Highway to Load of Coal.

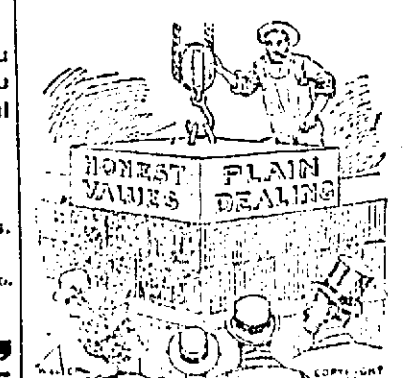

Customs and methods of the feudal ages have been revived in Janesville. One lord of the manor has lowered the portcullis of his castle gateway and declared "No Thoroughfare" to a neighbor. The neighbor has retaliated and the fierce dogs of open war are already struggling at their leashes.

Scene of Hostilities
It is all over an alley. The little highway runs along the river side from the rear of William H. Harvey's little restaurant on North Main street to Prospect avenue. There is no outlet on the south. Adjoining the restaurant to the north is a vacant lot. Then comes William Burchell's feed store, W. Coleman's paint shop, and three vacant stores belonging to the Myers estate.

War is Declared
The rear of Mr. Burchell's store is built over this alley with a sliding door to permit the passage of teams. This may be closed and locked but heretofore it has always remained open. Last Saturday, however, when a load of coal for Mr. Harvey sought to pass through this gateway, the lock was snapped and the coalman compelled to back out and return to the coalyard.

Bulldozes a Four-Rod Fence
Mr. Harvey decided to retaliate. He secured a lease of the patch of ground between the three buildings owned by the Myers estate and the river, which includes not only a section of the alley but its outlet on Prospect avenue, and this morning had put in place a four-rod barricade with a swinging door. This gave Mr. Harvey command of the situation, and when Mr. Burchell desired to take out his delivery team and wagon this forenoon, he was compelled to choose between the delightful alternatives of lifting them over the fence or driving into the river.

Bone of Contention
The bone of contention is the vacant lot between the two stores of the combatants. Mr. Burchell claims he has a lease of this bit of ground and resents liberties which Mr. Harvey has taken on the premises—such as allowing his horse to gambol on its stony area, and leaving ladders and pieces of lumber on the premises from time to time. There has been bad feeling for three years and the barricade near Prospect avenue is the culmination.

Mike Egan's Career

The Handball Champion Is a World Beater & His Irish Teur.

The Irish race is well to the fore in all kinds of athletics, but in none is it so pre-eminent as in handball. In fact, it is a sort of national pastime over in the greenest of isles. There never has been a champion at this game other than an Irishman, and the present holder

EGAN ILLUSTRATING A STRAIGHT DRIVE. er of that title, Michael Egan, who was born in Galway twenty-five years ago, is now a resident of Jersey City, N. J. Strange as it may seem, Egan never took much interest in the game until he became a resident of this country and is in a measure a native taught player. He first came into prominence by winning the amateur championship in 1897, and he held it for three years, when he graduated into the professional ranks by defeating Jerry McMahon of Brooklyn. His reputation soon became noised about, and since that time he has met all the aspirants for the title of champion and has beaten them easily.

Egan is a wonderfully well developed specimen of manhood. He is lithe, nimble, always in good condition, never seeming to tire, no matter how often he is called upon to play. He is also a wrestler of no mean ability, and when taking part in his favorite pastime he is the embodiment of all that is graceful and athletic. It is a treat to see him cover ground, and his back handed plays have always been a marvel.

His last match of international importance was with Timothy Twohill. Twohill was the recognized champion of the "ould sod" and came over here to wrest the title of champion of the world from Egan. The Irish expert did not win a single game on this side, and when Egan visited Ireland to finish the match the result was the same. He afterward toured Ireland, meeting all the local celebrities, and was never beaten. In fact, they would not play him for money, so all were exhibition games.

Egan says: "Handball is the best all around athletic sport in the world, and I want to see every young man make it a study. We cannot all be champions, but every one can derive athletic benefits from the game. I would advise every man who is interested in the welfare of his body to start in at the game and see it through.

"Don't go into a court with your clothes on and play a few points in a listless, half hearted manner, as if you were afraid of straining something. Take off your clothes, get into a pair of trunks and slippers and tackle the game as if it meant something to you. When you swing your arm swing hard, and when you run run fast."

Lou Dillon's Fast Clip.
Lou Dillon in an exhibition mile trotted a quarter in 28 1/2 seconds. Were the champion capable of maintaining this wonderful clip the entire mile it would give her the distance in 1:53. When she trots a quarter around 29 and 30 seconds. It can be seen that the mare trots well within her limit, and a mile well under two minutes may be looked for at any time.

A Football Double Header.
The double header idea is swinging from baseball to football. Recently Coach McCormack's Northwestern team played two academy teams the same afternoon—was scored on by one and failed to make a touchdown against the other.

PYTHIANS ARE TO BUILD HOME

Illinois Knights Will Expend $100,000 for Orphans of Members.

Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 21.—The Illinois Knights of Pythias at their closing session here took action on the plan to build a home for orphans of the members of the order, which has been under consideration for several years. The committee to which this question had been referred reported unfavorably, but the convention adopted the minority report favoring it. Over $100,000 will be expended upon it, the site to be determined later.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR MURDERER

Man Confesses to Killing His Friend During a Quarrel.

Wausau, Wis., Oct. 21.—Arthur Young, who pleaded guilty to the murder of Edward Smith, has been sentenced to imprisonment for life. He made a confession, through his attorney, in which he stated that he killed his friend by striking him on the head with a stone during a quarrel on the afternoon of August 27. He hid the body in the woods, where it was found on Oct. 7.

BANK CASHIER IS FRIENDLESS

Alfred H. Buck of Stapleton, Minn., a Fugitive, Has No Defenders.

Mankato, Minn., Oct. 21.—Few people in Stapleton have any excuses for Alfred H. Buck, the missing bank cashier, who is a fugitive. It now develops that his creditors will be losers to the extent of over $40,000, and most of his money has been gambled or speculated away. Buck was popular during his stay at the bank, but now there is hardly one man in the city who will say a good word for him.

PASTOR BETS TO SECURE PROOF

Rev. F. E. McFadden Tells Grand Jury of Gambling in Ohio.

Hamilton, O., Oct. 21.—Rev. F. E. McFadden, who gambled and lost at the county fair, made the bet to secure evidence for the grand jury against the gamblers operating in sheds just outside the fair grounds. He is pastor of the United Presbyterian church and has given the grand jury the proof of gambling which he obtained.

Achterberg's Store News.

King Edward is reported to have changed the color of his cravat. Those who follow style take notice.

GLOVE TALK. A very extensive lot of both dressed and undressed Kid gloves in all colors—lined or not—are here, as low as $1. I call particular attention to a glove at $2 that has every indication of being a Dent glove, the button alone showing it is not a Dent. A new fur lined street or driving glove that sells in the city at $5—my price $3. Splendid handcovering for cold fingered men. Dress gloves in plenty.

SHIRTS. New creations at $1 and upwards. Calumet, at $1.50. This will interest those who pay $2.50 and $3. for the identical shirt in the cities. New oxford colors are pretty.

NECKWEAR, HOSIERY. The big Ascot tie is popular as ever this year, and I have stocked up well on them. The colors are certainly catchy; four-in-hands, tecks, scarfs are plenty. This fall's hosiery is mighty pretty. The fancy hose is already taking hold. Plain colors have a following too.

NIGHT ROBES. Pure flannel night robes—with or without collars. The best line I could buy, and the best $1 line certainly procurable. I believe there has never been a more complete showing of good furnishings in the city than the new stock here. The comments from purchasers certainly indicate this fact. A man can be outfitted from head to heels, excepting his shoes.
